Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On January 20, 2006, at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, Franklin Covey's (the Company) shareholders approved an amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation to extend the period during which it has the right to redeem outstanding preferred stock at 100 percent of the liquidation preference, or $25 per share plus accrued dividends. The amendment extends the current redemption deadline from March 8, 2006 to December 31, 2006 and provides for the right to extend the redemption period for an additional year to December 31, 2007 if $10.0 million of preferred stock, in addition to prior preferred stock redemptions, is redeemed before December 31, 2006. The preferred stock redemption announced for February 13, 2006 (refer to Item 8.01 below) satisfies the December 31, 2007 redemption extension requirement.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On January 23, 2006, the Company announced that it had given notice to the shareholders of its Series A Preferred Stock for the redemption of $10.0 million, or approximately 400,000 shares, of currently outstanding Series A Preferred Stock. The Company's required 15 business-day redemption notice was dated January 23, 2006 for shareholders of record on that date and preferred shares will be redeemed from shareholders on a pro-rata basis. The preferred stock redemption will be made at its liquidation preference, or $25 per share plus accrued dividends through February 13, 2006, the redemption date. Following this redemption, the Company will have 1.5 million shares of preferred stock outstanding.

The Company also announced that its Board of Directors authorized the purchase up to $10.0 million of its currently outstanding common stock. These purchases will be made at the Company's discretion at prevailing market prices and will be subject to customary regulatory requirements and considerations. The Company does not have a timetable for the purchase of these common shares and the authorization by the Board of Directors does not have an expiration date.

FRANKLINCOVEY ANNOUNCES $10 MILLION REDEMPTION OF PREFERRED STOCK AND COMMON SHARE BUYBACK AUTHORIZATION

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 23, 2006 -- FranklinCovey (NYSE: FC) today announced that it has given shareholders of its Series A Preferred Stock notice of redemption for $10 million of the currently outstanding preferred stock. The notice was given to shareholders of record as of January 23, 2006, and provides for a redemption price of $25 per share plus accrued dividends through February 13, 2006, the redemption date. This second prorata redemption satisfies the extension conditions provided for by the amendment approved by shareholders at its meeting on January 20, 2006, which grants an extension to the Company to redeem the remaining $37 million of outstanding post-redemption Series A Preferred Stock until December 31, 2007. The shares of preferred stock will be redeemed on a prorata basis, subject to adjustment for fractional shares. The Company estimates that the redemption will result in the acquisition and cancellation of approximately 400,000 shares of its Series A Preferred Stock.

The Company also announced that its Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase from time to time, at prevailing market prices, of up to $10 million of the Company's currently outstanding common stock. This authority may be exercised as market conditions warrant and is subject to regulatory considerations. Purchases may be suspended from time to time or discontinued. The authorization is open-ended and does not have an expiration date.
